

WHITE CLAY CREEK
National Wild & Scenic River
Ours to Enjoy. Ours to Protect.

AGENDA

June 11, 2018, 10:00am - noon

New Garden Township Building, 299 Starr Road, Landenberg, PA 19350

Introductions

Approval of March Minutes

Presentations

Middle Run Restoration/Paper Mill Road Culvert Work Q&A (Sara Esposito, DeIDOT) 10:05-10:30

Charlie Emerson Pedestrian Bridge Q&A (Joe Spadafino/WRA Engineers) 10:30-10:45

New Business ((10:45-10:55))

Wild and Scenic River Volunteer Water Quality Monitoring Grants (new)

White Clay Creek State Park Master Plan Open Houses (see announcements for dates)

NPS River Manager Report, Jamie Fosburgh (10:55-11:00)

Old Business (11:00-11:05)

NPS/USGS Water Quality Partnership Grant pre-proposal

NPS/Rivers50 Grant Submission

River Network Grant Submission

New Garden Cell Tower Zoning Hearings

June 2018 Statement of Financials and WCRF Update (11:05- 11:10)

Subcommittee Reports (11:10-11:55)

Land Preservation

- Natural Lands Trust Project Updates (Erin M.)
- Brandywine Conservancy Project Updates (John G.)
- Chester County Conservation District Project Updates (Mike Z.)
- Other Land Stewardship Projects Update (Shane)

Research and Restoration (Shane)

- Water Quality Monitoring Update
- Catch the Rain Update
- Christina Watersheds Municipal Partnership

Education/Outreach (Shane)

- Newark H.S. trip to Stroud
- Creek Fest 2018 stats/update

Announcements

Next quarterly meeting will be in September

Other?

White Clay Creek State Park Master Plan Open Houses:

4 to 7 p.m. at Deerfield, 507 Thompson Station Road, on the following dates:

June 25: To highlight natural resources and interpretation; designed for public input on topics such as habitat, farming, ponds/streams, historical and natural programming

July 10: To highlight buildings and infrastructure; to seek public input on topics including the nature center, the park office, use of buildings, and current and future concessionaires

Aug. 1: To highlight roads and trails; for public input on topics including roads, trails and connectivity

Aug. 20: To highlight recreation use; for input on topics such as golfing, fishing, visiting historic sites and events